

TAKE OUR KIDS TO WORK™ 2020 FAMILY GUIDE

How to get the most out of the day that lasts a lifetime!

This year, on Wednesday, November 4, students, parents, teachers and workplaces will have more ways to participate in Take Our Kids to Work Day 2020 than ever before!

Wherever students are – at home, in school, or with a parent – you can build your own day based on what fits with your schedule. Families can participate in any of the following ways:

AT WORK

Youth can take part in activities and events organized and hosted by their parent's employer, most often virtually.

AT SCHOOL

Teachers can lead students through a virtual Take Our Kids to Work Day, which may include viewing or assigning as homework The Learning Partnership's virtual events and other fun, career-related activities in the classroom, before, on and after Wednesday, November 4.

AT HOME

Parents and their children can participate directly from home in virtual Take Our Kids to Work Day events hosted by The Learning Partnership.

Take Our Kids to Work Day offers parents and guardians a great chance to connect with their kids, sharing their own workplace world while learning about the goals, hopes, dreams and possibilities their child envisions for their future.

TIP

Parents, check with your employer to see if they are getting involved in Take Our Kids to Work 2020. Share takeourkidstowork.ca with the appropriate people in your organization and encourage them to learn more!

TIP

Check with your child's teacher to see what their plans are for incorporating Take Our Kids to Work 2020 in the classroom.
